

Leigha Kiger

Leigha Kiger is a communications specialist with the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board. Since joining FASAB in November 2015, Ms. Kiger has assisted in the development of Board publications by editing for clarity, consistency, and uniformity. She also manages internal and external communications, including meeting minutes, newsletters, listserv messages, and FASAB's website content.

Before joining FASAB, Ms. Kiger participated in AmeriCorps VISTA, a national service program overseen by the Corporation for National and Community Service. During her year of service, she piloted and coordinated the first financial literacy program of its kind at a local non-profit in Jupiter, Florida. Previous to this endeavor, she taught English in Bucaramanga, Colombia at the country's top-rated bilingual school. She focused her work at the preschool level with children from 18 months old to seven years old, to aid students in laying the groundwork for strong English literacy and grammatical accuracy in speech. Ms. Kiger graduated from Duke University in 2013 with a bachelor of arts degree in English.
